About the course

This course is a part of our Creative Writing & Drama learning programmes aimed to enable you to unlock your creativity with written words, acting and stagecraft.

This creative writing course will give you the skills to create and develop your own literary works, both factual and fictional.

What will I learn?

After this course you will be able to:

- Use specific writing techniques with some confidence
- Write confidently in a range of genres and styles
- Participate confidently in a workshop process of self and group analysis and critique
- Generate, draft, and edit a piece of poetry or prose to completion

What are the entry requirements?

- This course is for beginners with some or no previous experience as well as for those who have taken creative writing courses before and are now looking to further improve their writing skills.
- We use Google Suite for Education to record your learning journey. If you are a new learner with us, we will create an account for you. Details will be sent to your personal email so please check your inbox and spam regularly prior to course start.

What do I need to bring with me?

- You may wish to bring a piece of paper and a pen to take notes

How will my learning be assessed?

This is a non-accredited course with the intent to benefit lifelong learning. Your tutor will give you regular verbal and written feedback to support your progression. You will submit your course work and track your learning in Google Classroom. You will participate in group discussions and receive guidance.

To successfully complete the course your attendance should be a minimum of 85% and course work should be completed by the end of the course. Please note that the first session is an induction to the course and the centre, so it is therefore essential that you attend. If you for any reason are unable to attend, please let us know and ensure that you read through the induction slides located in your Google Classroom and complete any related tasks.

What can I do after completing this course?

- The most obvious progression pathway after this course is Creative Writing Masterclass or other courses which are part of our Creative Writing & Drama Learning Programmes. However, your tutor will give you a more specific advice on what you could do next at the end of the course based on your personal circumstances.
- You can call us to find out about upcoming courses on 020 8583 6000
