You will need to provide proof of income, for example, this could be a wage slip within 3 months of the course start date, or a current employment contract, which states gross monthly/annual wages.*

About the course

This course is part of our ESOL learning programmes. The course aims to support ESOL learners to develop the ability and skills to play and be creative within the English language (both written and spoken) to gain confidence in communication.

What will I learn?

After this course you will be able to:

- Be creative with your use of words, both written and spoken
- Read more complex stories in English with clarity and meaning
- Perform advanced tongue twisters at speed with good articulation/pronunciation

What are the entry requirements?

- To be working at the ESOL Entry Level 3 or above

What do I need to bring with me?

- Part of this course is online -please see the 'Devices and Digital Applications Required for Online Courses' section below
- You may wish to bring a piece of paper and a pen to take notes

How will my learning be assessed?

This is a non-accredited course with the intent to benefit lifelong learning. Your tutor will give you regular verbal and written feedback to support your progression. You will submit your course work and track your learning in Google Classroom. You will participate in group discussions and receive guidance.

To successfully complete the course your attendance should be a minimum of 85% and course work should be completed by the end of the course. Please note that the first session is an induction to the course and the centre, so it is therefore essential that you attend. If you for any reason are unable to attend, please let us know and ensure that you read through the induction slides located in your Google Classroom and complete any related tasks.

Devices and digital applications required for online courses

As part of this course is online, access to a computer or a laptop and a good internet connection is required. We recommend that you download Google Chrome Browser.

What can I do after completing this course?

- The most obvious progression pathways after this course are courses which are part of our ESOL Programmes. However, your tutor will give you a more specific advice on what you could do next at the end of the course based on your personal circumstances.
 - You can call us to find out about upcoming courses on 020 8583 6000
