

Creative Writing for the Industry:

Scriptwriting

About the Course

This course introduces adults to the craft and business of scriptwriting for film, television, theatre, and audio. Learners will explore story structure, character development, dialogue, formatting, and pitching while analysing professional scripts and receiving constructive feedback on their own work.

Course Learning Outcomes

- Create an original script idea, including a basic story outline and main characters.
- Write a correctly formatted script extract that demonstrates effective dialogue, character development, and story structure.
- Review and improve your script using tutor and peer feedback and confidently share your work with the group through a short presentation or script reading.

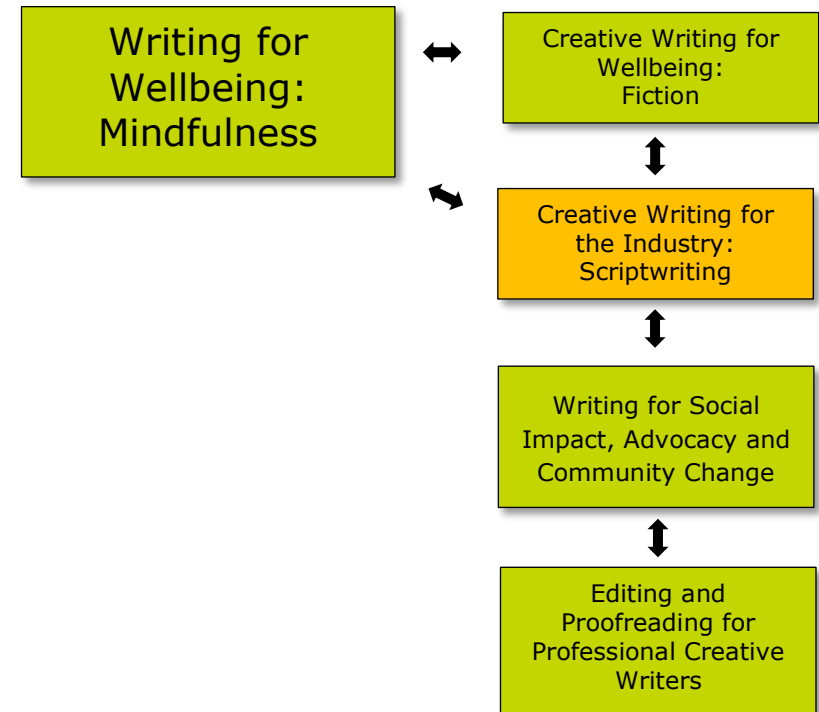

Please note: To successfully complete this course, you must commit to full attendance and punctuality. You will also be required to use basic digital skills throughout the course to access and support your learning materials.

What is needed for the course

This course is for beginners with some or no previous experience as well as for those who have taken creative writing courses before and are now looking to further improve their writing skills.
