About the course

This course is part of our creative specialist programme, designed to enable learners to develop skills in photography and filmmaking. The course is suitable for beginners with no previous experience of filmmaking. Once you have completed this course you might decide to progress on a Level 2 Qualification in Creative Media for Film and Television, or to continue your learning on other photography courses to build your confidence as so to practice independently.

On this course, you will be guided through the essential steps of making a short film, using moving image and camera. The processes include scripting and storyboarding, filming, recording sound, editing and exporting your short film. This complex process will be broken down into sessions where you can experiment and try it all, using techniques that you can easily make use of at home.

What will I learn?

After completing this course you will be able to:

- Plan a short film by narrating a script and a simplified storyboard
- Film moving image, using a smartphone or DSLR camera
- Record sound to add on the moving image. We will be using smartphones.
- Edit and cut your filmed sequences into a short film
- Export the film in an appropriate format

What are the entry requirements?

- This course is for beginners with little or no previous knowledge of photography or filmmaking. However, to access this course basic digital skills are essential
- We use Google Suite for Education to record your learning journey. If you are a new learner with us, we will create an account for you. Details will be sent to your personal email so please check your inbox and spam regularly prior to course start.

What do I need to bring with me?

- A pen and paper for note taking

How will my learning be assessed?

This is a non-accredited course with the intent to benefit lifelong learning. Your tutor will give you regular verbal and written feedback to support your progression. You will submit your course work and track your learning in Google Classroom. You will participate in group discussions and receive guidance.

To successfully complete the course your attendance should be a minimum of 85% and course work should be completed by the end of the course. Please note that the first session is an induction to the course and the centre, so it is therefore essential that you attend. If you for any reason are unable to attend, please let us know and ensure that you read through the induction slides located in your Google Classroom and complete any related tasks.

What can I do after completing this course?

- To further develop your filmmaking skills towards a professional career, we advise that you continue your learning on the Level 2 Qualification in Creative Media for Film and Television
 - At the end of the course your tutor will advise you on your possible next steps.
