About the course

This is a taster session to let you try out illustration classes with Hounslow Adult & Community Education. You will learn more about the basic principles of creating storyboards and be guided through a creative illustration exercise. You will receive more information about our course offer in illustration and other drawing and painting courses in the curriculum offer. You will have the opportunity of signing up to the longer course Illustration for Beginners – People and Places, starting shortly after.

What will I learn?

After this course you will be able to:

- Identify the core principles of narrative illustration, from examples in popular culture
- Draw your own storyboard in three frames

What are the entry requirements?

- This session is for beginners with little or no previous knowledge of creative art and illustration.

What do I need to bring with me?

- All resources will be provided – just bring a curious mind!

How will my learning be assessed?

This is a non-accredited course with the intent to benefit lifelong learning. Your tutor will give you verbal feedback in the session. You will submit your course work and track your learning in Google Classroom. You will participate in group discussions and receive guidance.

You will need to attend the full session. Late arrivals may not be given entry to the class. If you for any reason are unable to attend, please let us know by calling 020 8583 6000.
