

Arabic: Beginners for Good Customer Service

About the Course

This is a brand-new course part of our Modern Languages Learning programmes. The course aims to provide learners with practical communication skills to engage with Arabic-speaking guests and colleagues in hospitality settings such as at the airport, hotels and restaurants.

This is a non-accredited (non-qualification) language course. Learners do not need any prior experience of speaking or writing Arabic to enrol on this exciting course.

Course Learning Outcomes

- Welcome customers politely using simple phrases.
- Identify and explain simple guest questions such as name, nationalities, profession, age, phone number and date of birth in Arabic.
- Explain hotel facilities.
- Discuss and understand sentences and frequently used expressions related to customer service in Arabic.

Please note:

To successfully complete this course, you must commit to full attendance and punctuality. You will also be required to use basic digital skills throughout the course to access and support your learning materials.
