About the course

This course is part of our Pottery Specialist Programmes aimed at those who would like to learn pottery skills and techniques to pursue a career in Pottery and Ceramics or other related sectors within the Creative Industries. Our Pottery Specialist Programmes offer both accredited (qualification) and not-accredited (non-qualification) courses up to Level 2 (GSCE equivalent).

This course is for experienced learners who have mastered basic pottery techniques. This course will enable you to learn skill needed to design, create and prepare a creative pottery craft item for an exhibition at our adult learning centre in Cranford. As part of this course, you will also gain experience of exhibiting to obtain feedback from the public so that you can evaluate your own work.

This course is at the highest level of our non- accredited Pottery Specialist Programmes.

What will I learn?

After this course you will be able to:

- Demonstrate awareness of health and safety issues in ceramics through safe studio practice, with consideration towards others
 - Develop and awareness of historical and contemporary approaches in ceramic decoration by learning about other ceramic artists
 - Develop ceramic ideas for an exhibition on a given theme/ topic
 - Plan the production of your design
 - Use materials, tools and equipment and ceramic techniques to produce the design
 - Present, exhibit and evaluate your final design while also obtaining feedback from the public
- *you must be open to following the class learning outcomes
