About the course

This course is part of our wellbeing programme designed to enable learners to try a new art, craft or exercise in order to explore the benefits they have our wellness. Once you have competed this course you might decide to start practicing Yoga at a local fitness centre or learn more on our Yoga specialist programmes to gain more confidence so to start practising more independently. All HACE Yoga courses are focused on taking a holistic approach to improve health and wellbeing. They are not based solely on exercise.

This class will introduce you to the ancient form of Hatha Yoga, the basis of the most common taught yoga forms. The practice is dynamic and physical, with focus on breath, controlled movements and stretching.
