About the course

This course is part of our creative specialist programme designed to enable learners to develop specific sewing and fashion skills and deepen their material and technical knowledge. The course might support your independent creative practice, support you to be able to make clothes yourself or provide additional skills as you are progressing in your creative craft learning.

On this course you will be making a dress and bag from provided patterns. You will learn the essential skills of transferring a pattern from paper to fabric, fitting to your measurements and create the piece using a sewing machine. To enrol on this course, you need essential sewing machine skills.

What will I learn?

After this course you will be able to:

- Take body measurements and match this to a pattern size
- Read a dressmaking pattern and understand the visual language
- Transfer a paper pattern to fabric, with consideration to grainline and fabric properties
- Feel confident a basic garment, including darts, neckline and armholes with facing and understitch
- Prepare your work area in a healthy and safe way, with the equipment that you need
- Name the basic dressmaking tools

What are the entry requirements?

- This course is for beginners with little or no previous knowledge of dressmaking.
 - However, you should have basic knowledge of sewing, and we recommend you to do an Introduction to Sewing Machine course beforehand.
 - To access this course basic digital skills are essential. We use Google Suite for Education to record your learning journey. If you are a new learner with us, we will create an account for you. Details will be sent to your personal email so please check your inbox and spam regularly prior to course start.

What do I need to bring with me?

- Essential resources will be provided, but if you wish to use a specific fabric you will need to purchase this yourself. Discuss this with your tutor beforehand. You will be provided with a pattern for a specific piece of garment.
 - You may wish to bring a piece of paper and a pen to take notes

How will my learning be assessed?

This is a non-accredited course with the intent to benefit lifelong learning. Your tutor will give you regular verbal and written feedback to support your progression. You will submit your course work and track your learning in Google Classroom. You will participate in group discussions and receive guidance.

To successfully complete the course your attendance should be a minimum of 85% and course work should be completed by the end of the course. Please note that the first session is an induction to the course and the centre, so it is therefore essential that you attend. If you for any reason are unable to attend, please let us know and ensure that you read through the induction slides located in your Google Classroom and complete any related tasks.

What can I do after completing this course?

- The most obvious pathway after this course would be to further develop your skills on progression courses in dressmaking. You might also be interested in learning pattern cutting skills or to gain a L2 Textile Qualification.
 - At the end of the course your tutor will advise you on your possible next steps.
 - You can call us to find out about upcoming courses on 020 8583 6000
