

Multiply: Sewing Beginners Dressmaking Womenswear

Multiply

Progression Pathway

The course involves transferring a provided pattern from paper to fabric, taking measurements and create the piece using a sewing machine. The course aims to improve your confidence in using measurements for dressmaking projects.

The course might support your independent creative practice, support you to be able to make clothes yourself or provide additional skills as you are progressing in your creative craft learning. This course is designed for those that know how to use a sewing machine but have not worked with dressmaking before.

Course Learning Outcomes

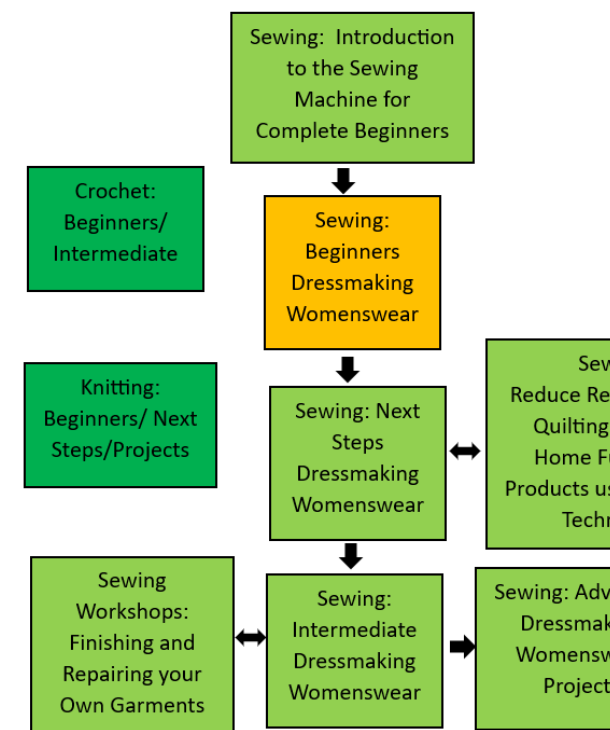

- To apply body measurements to a pattern size
- Read and understand a dressmaking pattern and using visual language
- To create a basic garment, including darts, neckline and armholes.
- To understand how to use the sewing machines and equipment safely

Please note: To successfully complete this course you must commit to 100% attendance and punctuality.

What is needed for the course?

To enrol on this course, you need essential sewing machine skills. Essential materials will be provided but you might wish to bring your own material to realise your project. Your tutor will advise you further.
