

Watercolour Painting Projects

About the Course

On this 10-week course you will be challenged to further develop your watercolour painting skills towards an independent and personal practice. You will be guided on how to present, display and price your work and by the end of the course you will be provided with a space to sell your work on one of our Craft Markets.

Once you have completed this course you might join a local painting group or continue your learning on an accredited course, such as Art and Design Level 1 Award (NCFE).

Course Learning Outcomes

- Produce a range of watercolour paintings to sell on the craft market
- Understand basic principles of selling your work on the Craft Market

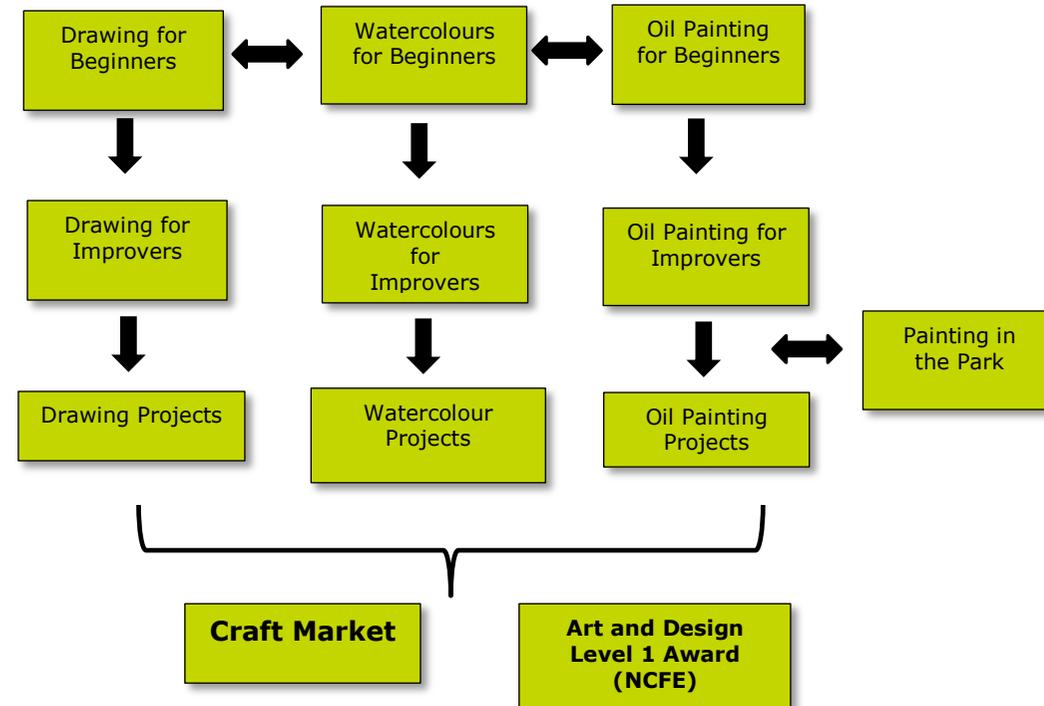

Please note: To successfully complete this course you must commit to 100% attendance and punctuality.

What is needed for the course?

Essential materials will be provided. You might wish to bring more specialist equipment and material. Your tutor can advise you further.
