

Sewing: Intermediate Dressmaking Womenswear

About the Course

On this course you will be making a garment from a prepared pattern on an intermediate level. You will develop the essential skills of transferring a pattern from paper to fabric, fitting to your measurements and create the piece using a sewing machine.

Course Learning Outcomes

- Select a suitable fabric for your sewing project to transfer a paper pattern on to
- Demonstrate the making of a basic garment, including inserting and sewing sleeves
- Read and follow a sewing instruction to complete your garment to a finished standard
- Prepare your work area in a healthy and safe way, with the equipment that you need

Please note: To successfully complete this course, you must commit to full attendance and punctuality. You will also be required to use basic digital skills throughout the course to access and support your learning materials.

What is needed for the course?

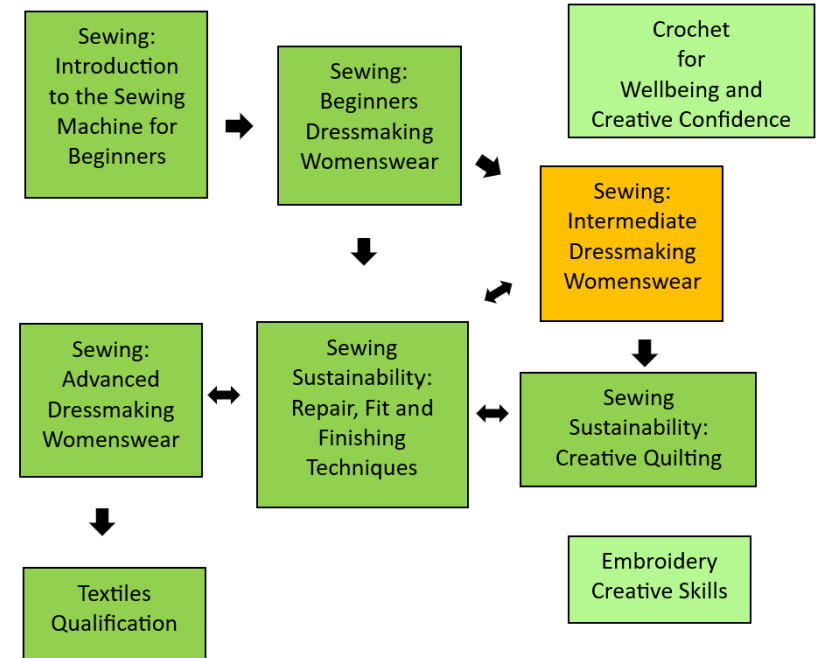

To enrol on this course, you need essential sewing machine skills.

This course is for learners who have completed the Dressmaking for Beginners course, or who have experience of sewing from patterns at home

Essential materials will be provided but you might wish to bring your own material to realise your project. Your tutor will advise you further.
